A Championship Season*

Volume I

01 November 2003

The Year was 1962

New York YANKEES
-vs-
San Francisco GIANTS

Once again, the mighty Yanks had been able to hold off a worthy opponent despite failing to win consecutive games at any point in the Series and getting .174 and .120 batting marks from two of their biggest threats, Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle. Their less-than stellar stats were certainly a compliment to the Giants pitching staff as the "The M&M Boys" had posted one-hundred seventy-eight home runs combined in the last two seasons. It mattered little though as the American League's dynasty had proven that they were back and ready for more.

Advanced Basketball

This was the name that was given to the sport, I didn't make this one up.

Actually, it was listed as a "Girl's Activity". So smile pretty and accept the term "girl" cause it's gonna show up in several other places.

Varsity Basketball

Yes, that beautiful stomach, was flat and those shoes, were large. They also misspelled my name several times. Show's you how good I was, I shall remain nameless in the memory of GHS Sports. Also this is the only photograph where I get front row status, I am always where Todd Mosher is standing.

Now don't get me wrong, but isn't the normal way of stating a record, to list the Wins First and the Losses Afterwards... Or do you win Cross Country by the lower number, like Golf? By the way, aren't you supposed to be wearing skis and carrying a rifle?

Now someone is going to have to explain to me what these two groups were meant to be? And why am I not a member of the male version of these clubs?

This is another one that needs explaining. What was the "sport"? or is the correct term "activity"? I can't be too sure, but aren't some of these women in Gym Clothes and the other in street clothing? Why? What were you responsible for "Leading"? Was this a military organization, i.e. Corps, as in "Marine"?
