A Night Out With the Gang

And so it begins, the Social Season “Opener” occurred on the leap day of the 60th Year for the Gang. There were ten of us in all... Not shown in the photo are Maureen Breuel Bohning and John McLane. You may ask “Why?” and the answer is simple. By the time that Gene Davino brought out the camera, they had already left Manero’s. So I will take this opportunity to reset the table 41 years earlier.

Marsha WASHINGTON Gilmore
Mt. Vernon . NY
merrygo@earthlink.net

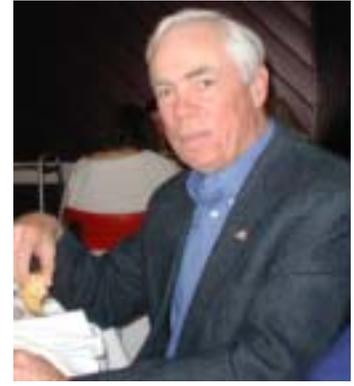

Does the now famous quote “Not Bad for a Great Grandma” (01 June 2003) mean anything to you? I had the great pleasure of sitting next to Marsha and I can vouch for her... she is a most amazing great grandma. You Go Girl...

Douglas FISCHER

Well folks, here is the guy w ho actually came up w ith the “Great Idea” to have “Going 60 into the 60’s” aboard a Party Boat cruising around the islands of Greenw ich. I made a mistake on the eMail that gave this “credit” to Ginny Theis... I stand corrected... Look for “more” on the 60’s Bash, as we put this project into shape.

Bob McMILLAN
Scarsdale . NY

bigmac2allbeef@yahoo.com

Keeping true to form, Gene Suggested that I maintain my “paparazzi” pose... The only thing is I got the hand backw ard... It is supposed to be turned outw ard and blocking the camera, not my face. This photo is somew hat reminiscent of a scene from the movie “Alien”

George DEVOL
New Canaan . CT
Gdevol3@aol.com

When George w alked in it w as obvious w ho he w as... compare the tw o photos and you will see “very little change”... in fact, the mirror image including the same smile... 41 years later.

JoAnn LOVETRI Mandarano
Smyrna . DE
JoAnn@delanet.com

JoAnn came to Greenw ich from Delaw are for other reasons, but w as able to join the party at Manero’s w ith her niece. There is a most amazing story of the Business World and a company called Del-Mar , inside JoAnn and one day she w ill w rite it dow n for the WW-N-W New sletters for all to read.

Eugene DAVINO
Greenwich . CT
Chatham . MA
eugenedavino@aol.com

Gene walked in and I didn't at first recognize him at first... So he introduced himself... the rest is History. And the story goes... he doesn't have an attic... "Go figure"

Gene and Bill are clipped off the photo above as a lead-in to this story, simply because Gene took the other photos, and never took a photo of himself or Bill... You can see Bill's wife in the far corner of the photo below at the end of this article.

Ginny THEIS
Stamford . CT
ginnytheis@aol.com

Okay, now I dare anyone to say that this is not Ginny Theis... Why didn't we have teachers as good as this when we were in School? Ginny was the one that I credited with coming up with the "Boat Trip" but then I already told you all this story.

John McLANE
New Canaan . CT
jmdane@stauntonmdane.com

As I mentioned earlier, John and Maureen had left before we took the photos, so we do not have a current photo of Maureen, but we have the photo that John sent to us a while back... we have cropped out his wife... forgive me, John...

William CHRISTIANSEN
Old Lyme . CT
wgc55@aol.com

Bill and his wife were the first to arrive at Manero's and I ran into them on the street in front of the Place. Bill's wife was a real "trooper" putting up with all these 60 year olds...

Maureen BREUEL Bohning
Cos Cob . CT
docnbreu@aol.com

Saving the best for last. It was always something that my Mom had taught us about eating our dinners. You are supposed to save the "best for last" so that you can walk away from the table feeling "good"... so Maureen you get that Honor...

As mentioned earlier, we don't have an up to date photo of Breu... but I can attest to the fact, "Nothing has changed about Breu". In fact, as was said by several of those who attended the

First Quadrennial Leap Year Sadie Hawkins Bash

There has been very little change in the personalities of all who attended. It was a group of teenagers having grown better with age.

The Writes of Spring

Pencil us in for the "Writes of Spring" to occur on 21 March 2004. That's a Sunday and the objective is to cut another notch in the Milestones leading up to "Going Sixty into the Sixties". So here is the Update on Time and Place:

10:30 am to 2:30 pm
Sunday Brunch
21 March 2004

Hyatt Regency Old Greenwich
1800 East Putnam Avenue
Old Greenwich, Connecticut 06870, USA

Hyatt Regency

Hyatt Regency

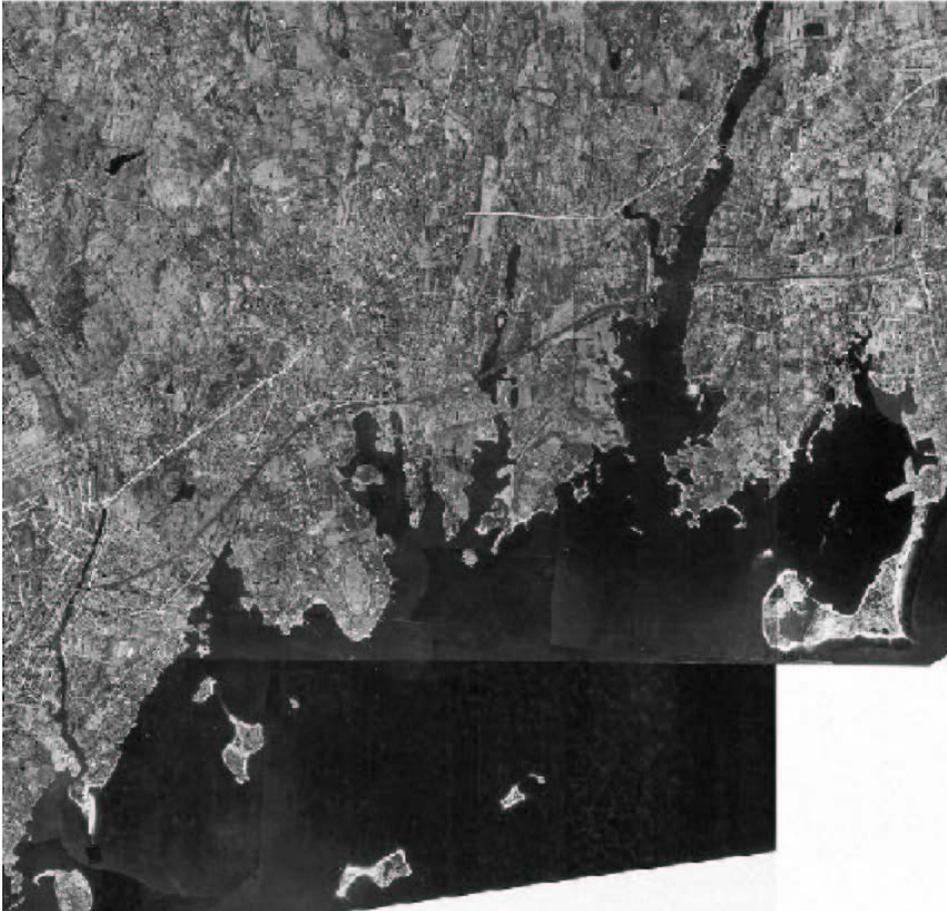

Hyatt Regency

The Hyatt Regency Old Greenwich is a deluxe, English Manor-style hotel overlooking landscaped lawns and gardens with an ideal location off the Connecticut Turnpike. The hotel is 45 minutes to Manhattan or to New York airports; 15 miles to Westchester County Airport. Hyatt believes that truly exceptional hotels adapt to your expectations. That's why they have created an assortment of innovative programs designed to match their accommodation, amenities and services to your individual needs. Whether you're planning a business trip, a relaxing family vacation, a business meeting or an important social gathering, you can always count on Hyatt to make it an extraordinary experience, down to the smallest detail. The hotel is minutes to fine dining, shopping and entertainment.

Going Sixty into the Sixties

The ultimate expression of our lives growing up in Greenwich. Many of us had the great fortune to have a boat of some sort in our families, and if you were lucky enough to have a great father like mine, you also had your own boat. Every Summer you could race around the Islands and down to Playland and Rye Beach. It is currently thought to be a weekend of events to occur sometime in the month of September 2004, and will include breakfasts, brunches and beaches and an opportunity to visit with old friends and townies, with the culminating "event" a Boat Trip around the Islands of Greenwich aboard one of the fleet of Fjord's Fine Catering of Cos Cob.

So even though we are only in the "Formative" stages of this great weekend, you might just pencil it in for the "month" on your calendars...
