Glenville Class of 1958

Coming all the way from the "Attic" in Gene Davino's house we have several items of "Local Color" ... oops, make that "Local Black and White". Oddly, we are all a part of the generation that witnessed the changeover from Black and White printing to the "True Color" printing. Our Yearbook, the Compass was mostly B+W with splashes of Blue as shown in the image at right. George has dug deep into the stash in the attic as well as his memory and came up with the names of a few of the class. So here is this weeks' "Poser" ... Name as many of these "pre-teen pubescent alumni" as you can.

(Editor's Note: George somehow forgot the second, third and last rows... But I can see Gene in the second row third in from the right.)

Behind The ? Mark

Have you been wondering who are those individuals behind the Question Marks in the Photo Directories. Gene has been again to the Attic and has come up with a few of the most likely candidates... we have Jay Cleary, Jeff Buck and Rey Reddington.

After School Hours – Just Hangin with Friends

I had to laugh at Rosemary's comments about the Nielsen's restaurant. I too, opened the joint and worked behind the soda counter. Naturally I would try and give EXTRA BIG scoops to friends and once in a while Mr. Nielsen would hide in the background, catch me and run up and remind me of my misdeed. It was a fun place to work and made a lot of pocket $ for summer fun.

New Kids on the Block

As the story goes... I called the telephone number listed in the Photo Directory under Jeff's Photo and had a long conversation with Mrs. T as this was indeed Jeff's phone number and she gave me Jeff's phone number at work. Our conversation covered a lot of territory and made up for the 40 years that we last saw one another. I also tried to collect on an old design project that I did for him back in 1961. Is there a Statute of Limitations on Architect's Fees? Oddly, Jeff lives on the same road as Marianne Lindquist and just up the road from John Abercrombie. Of course the roads are long and windy in Upstate New York.

Jane has come to us through the magic of the Caribbean in that Jane Benjamin Sheen has proven once again that she is a Googler of Great Skill. Jane and her husband Derry are in Riverside but spend their winters in Vero Beach. Now we have several members of the Class of 62 that have either relocated or have bought condos in the Land of Fun and Sun. We have to think about opening a winter HQ for the WW-N-W Newsletters down there.

My primary purpose in Boston was to run the Boston Marathon for the second time. This year it was hotter than last, a fluke of a kinked jet stream; 91 degrees at the finish line when I came in. So we generally took a more leisurely pace and were able to enjoy such a grandiose event (the winners didn't; the female winner collapsed at the finish line). I took between 40 and 60 cups of Gatorade and water on the course, a new record for me. It was the only record I set that day, as the course times were generally slow for the pack because of the heat. We again stayed at the Lenox Hotel, a grand old hotel, right at the finish line. And the lobster dinner at the Chart House to refuel was terrific. I recommend both. Steve, my brother, and his wife, Jane, drove up from Bethlehem, PA to witness their first marathon. We spent the rest of the week in Burlington, VT, where my daughter, Jonna, the pediatrician, lives with her husband, Jeremy. Also, the Web site is www.baa.org and one can look up the statistics for any runner. Also, we use computer chips on our shoelaces that are read as we run over "reader" mats every 5K, so one can track any runner in real time during the marathon to get split times, pace, time to starting line, and so forth.

I am off to the Bay Area for semiconductor business the week of May 10. But before then, we play four Mozart symphonies the next two weekends. Life is busy, but great!

A few tidbits:

I think the entrance postcard of Bruce Park is in the area of Steamboat road. It's the ONLY place where there is a road entering the park on a slope.

Penny Haymes Cox asked questions about composers: It is ANTONIO Vivaldi (1678 - 1741), and his work is often referred to as just GLORIA, sometimes referred to (more properly) Gloria Mass. There were two Haydns: Franz Joseph (1732 - 1809), the more famous, and his brother Johann Michael (1737 - 1806).

If you ever need music info, here's a great site:

And remember, if it ain't Baroque, don't fix it ! Love hearing from you...keep up the good work !

PS: as I recall, the person who narrated the Xmas pageant was Alden Smith.

Webbster n Button

As the season comes around again and the grass grows high on the back forty, I repeat an old Webbster n Button, also because the website at Alachua has not updated REM's archives:

The Senior Chorus Project

Penny HAYMES Cox . Boulder . CO

This is the order in which I have laid out the print materials for the booklet:

'59 Christmas Pageant
'60 Missa Brevis
'61 Cherubini Mass
'61 European Tour
'62 Vivaldi

I understand the space limitations for the discs, and that it will be necessary in some cases to split performances. Glad we'll be able to keep the chronological order. The LP of the European Tour went as follows: EUROPEAN CONCERT TOUR

Chorus

Oklahoma! Medley
Set Down n Servant
My Lord, What A Morning
Lord, Make Me An Instrument Of Thy Peace

Witchmen

Little Liza Jane
De Animals Are Comin'
Wait For The Wagon
Happy Wanderer

Chorus

Alleluia
Fa Una Canzone

Fair Maid Thy Charm And Loveliness
Three Chansons

Madrigal Singers

Da Untem Im Tale
Little White Hen

Chorus

Stomp Your Foot
Wayfaring Stranger
Shenandoah

The Subject of Memories

These were the front pages of my Compass and they are the only other color that was a part of our years, the sepia tones of the aging paper. Modern paper will never age to this quality, sadly.

Hey GHS is only 79 years old.
