

Greenwich High School
 Wreadin Writin n Wreminiscin
 Weekly Wreader 100th Edition
 Volume II - 17 October 2004

The Going Sixty Steering Committee
 Already shown in earlier photos are George Devol, Bill Christiansen,
 Kathie Temple Azoff and myself. Now shown below are:

Gene
 Davino

Ginny
 Theis

Now we are getting into the serious Spot Quiz
 Question Territory:

No. 4... First lady from the left?

The next in line is Betty Fossum Barrett

No. 5... Third in Line?

Kathie Temple Azoff

On the far end....
 Nancy Schmidt Lambert

By the way, look how blue the sky is... we had a magnificent day.

Jill
Guinon
Slocum

Along with Ann Zellner and George Antony Friend... away in the background you can see Mike Taylor, Suzanne Dower and Jeff Tunick.

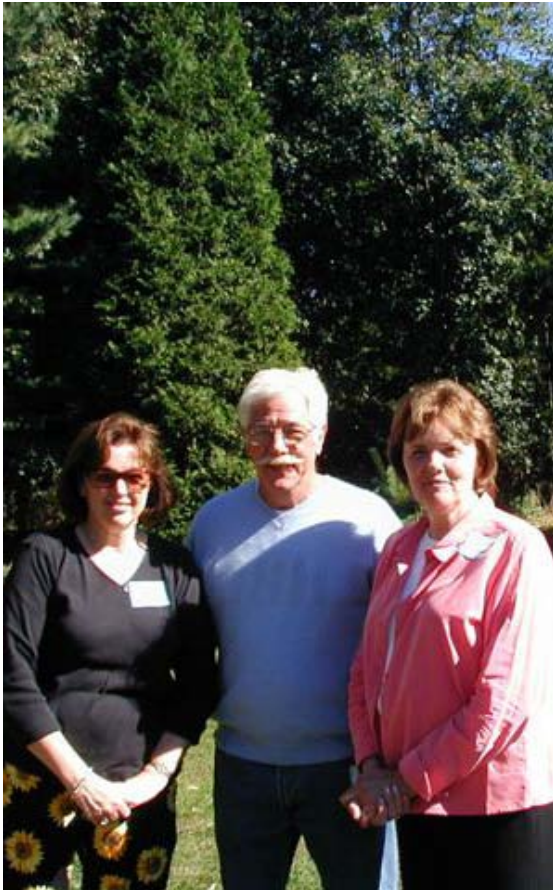

John Geter

Along with Mike and Susie Higgins

And

Barry
Gibbs

Rick Hvolbeck with the next two Spot Quiz Questions, now I can tell you that these will probably be the most difficult as they are probably the wives of other classmates... so the Spot Quiz Question No. 6... is what is Rick doing with these guys wives???

Canine Corner... Jeff Tunick's Shepherd was better behaved than most of the class and George Devol's Dachshund, which was not at the picnic, but came in the set of photos from George. And of Course we have the ever enjoyable personage of:

Maurene
Breuel
Bohning

Ken Moughty

Ken Moughty, Michael Hone, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rink, The Coach (and this is the only photo we have of him out of all the chances, as he was the most energetic one in the place, Coach McDevitt and Lorraine McDevitt, who many of you might remember from GHS, cause she was there and she is even more energetic than the coach. Now, This is a very tricky question for those taking the "Mid-Life" Exam... What was Mrs. Lorraine McDevitt's Job at GHS?

Coach
Peter
McDevitt

The person standing in the center with her back to the camera is Marie Proudfoot Severo

For those of you who can not believe that Tod's Point can be this beautiful, we offer the view of the sound from the Clambake Area

