As the story goes... Yes that Sherry Thomas, who married Howard Hoover, but they didn't win the "Long Distance Award" as that was grabbed by Ann Zellner Culbertson. There was no award, however, but there was an "After Party", just like Hollywood and the Oscars.

Now I did not attend the party as it was way past my "bedtime" and I was sorry that I missed it... below is the Gracious Host and his Wife, which will give you a "leg-up" on one of the Spot Quiz Questions No. 6.

The After Party

Although Kelley Kaufman has been in Greenwich for all the events of the Weekend, we finally get a photograph of her along with Ted Godlin, both have finished braving the storms that hit Florida and found the occasion to come up for the weekend, so we finally WW-N-W's "Dining Out with Kelley and Ted" and they are Dining out at the house of Doug Fischer.

Besides Ted and Kelley, are Suzanne Dower and Donna
(I don't know her last name). The photo below shows that the evening has taken a new swing to the terrace, where Kathie, Jane and Ginny "kick-back" a few cold ones....

While returning inside we find that Gene Davino and Ted have traded places and the camera, so that Gene can be caught as the lucky guy in the middle of three very happy ladies... Gene you Dawg...
